THE TOWN OF HOSTALRIC

The town of Hostalric has been declared a National Cultural Heritage Site thanks to having one of Catalonia's outstanding existing medieval quarters and to the imposing military fortress built in the early modern period that looms over it.

Your visit to Hostalric will enable you to travel back in time and enjoy an extraordinary experience.

THE CASTLE

Perched on an outcrop of basalt rock, the old medieval castle of the Viscounts of Cabrera used to dominate the former medieval highway, halfway along its route from Girona to Barcelona.

From the 17th century onwards, the castle underwent transformations to adapt to the new way of life and new methods of defence ushered in by the changing times.
